

To Whom It May Concern

As General Manager of Smart Melbourne and previously as General manager at DDB / Rapp Collins, I have worked with Leaf Group for a number of years. Leaf Group has been an instrumental supplier for some of our larger event projects, such as the Cadbury Schweppes involvement with the Sydney Olympics, and major regional product launches Michelin, BFGoodrich and Exxon Mobil. Leaf's professional and honest approach to supplying creative solutions for apparel and promotional product briefs make them a standout leader within this cluttered supplier category.

Yours Faithfully
